COUNTY DEPARTMENT AGENDA REQUEST

Department:	Engineering/ Street Lights	Presenter(s):	Phil Mallon
Meeting Date:	Thursday, September 10, 2009	Type of Request:	Consent

Wording for the Agenda:

Approval of Edgewood Subdivision as a Street Light District.

Background/History/Details:

In accordance with Chapter 16 of the Fayette County Code, Edgewood Subdivision has petitioned the County to allow taxpayers to have street lights installed in the new subdivision.

Application for the consideration of Street Light District creation was submitted by Darryl Graves Builders, Inc., Arbor Construction, Inc., Chris Parrott Homes, Inc., Simply Southern Traditional Homes, Inc., and Mr. and Mrs. Steve and Jackie Brown. According to the vote tally, as submitted in background information, 46 property lot owners voted on the issue of creating a Street Light District of which 41 property lot owners, or 89% of the property lot owners, voted to create a Street Light District. Of the remaining 5 property lot owners, four, or 9% voted against the creation of a Street Light District, and one property owner, representing 2% of the vote, did not vote in favor of or in opposition to the request.

If the petition is approved payment for the lights will be placed on the homeowners' Annual Tax Bill.
