RESOLUTION 2014-06

A RESOLUTION OF COMMITMENT FROM FAYETTE COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS TO THE U.S. CONSTITUTION

WHEREAS, The United States Constitution is the most important document ever crafted in our country on government structure and the rights of our people; and

WHEREAS, The Founding Fathers created a document, the first of its kind, that has stood as the light of our liberty for over two centuries and is greatly admired around the world; and

WHEREAS, The Constitution represents our most fundamental law, the established and deliberate will of the people, against which the actions of government officials must be squared; and

WHEREAS, The Constitution flows freely from the philosophical stream of the Declaration of Independence affording the exercise of legitimate power by the consent of the governed, a free people whose rights and liberty are derived from their Creator; and

WHEREAS, We recognize the Constitution was born in a crisis, held throughout our nation's trials and extends toward our future; and

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED THAT the Board of Commissioners of Fayette County declares Fayette County as a Constitutional County, and does hereby formally acknowledge that the continued success and viability of our democratic Republic depends on our commitment to, and the faithful exposition and interpretation of the United States Constitution.

So resolved this 13th day of February 2014, by the

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS
FAYETTE COUNTY, GEORGIA
