OTHER DOCUMENTS AND FILINGS FOR THE GEORGIA GOVERNMENT TRANSPARENCY AND CAMPAIGN FINANCE COMMISSION

Declaration of Intention to Accept Campaign Contributions:

- Must be filed PRIOR to accepting contributions.
- A candidate's personal funds expended for their campaign, except for payment of a qualifying fee, are considered campaign contributions.
- A new form must be filed if there is a break in office or if accepting contributions for a different office.
- County and municipal candidates file this form with their local filing officer. All other candidates file with the Georgia Government Transparency & Campaign Commission.

Registration Form for a Campaign Committee:

- This form registers a candidate's campaign committee.
- A committee is required only if a candidate designates someone to file reports, accept money, or expend money on behalf of the campaign.
- A Chairperson and Treasurer are required for a committee; however, they can be the same person and can be the candidate. If either position is vacant, the committee cannot accept contributions.
- The committee registration will remain in effect until the registration is cancelled by the committee or the candidate.
- Filed with the Georgia Government Transparency & Campaign Finance Commission.

Choosing the Option of Separate Accounting:

- Permits candidates to accept contributions for multiple elections within an election cycle. Thus, a candidate may accept contributions for the general election cycle even if the primary election has not occurred.
- A candidate must designate what election the contribution is accepted for on the applicable Campaign Contribution Disclosure Report (CCDR).
- Contributions received for a future election cannot be expended until the current election has occurred.
- If a candidate does not qualify or participate in a future election in an election cycle, the contributions received for the future election must be returned to contributors pro-rata.
- Filed with the Georgia Government Transparency and Campaign Finance Commission.

Campaign Contribution Disclosure Report:

- A CCDR is a report filed by a candidate or campaign committee that discloses all contributions received and expenditures made during a reporting period.
- Six reports are due in an election year and two reports are due in a nonelection year. The filing schedule is located at O.C.G.A. § 21-5-34(c).
- $125.00 late fee is assessed when a report is filed late. However, there is a seven-day grace period.
- Local candidates may be exempt from filing CCDRs if they file an Affidavit of Exemption and meet certain criteria.
- Candidates for any state or state-wide office must file electronically with the Commission and candidates for county and municipal offices file with their local filing officer.

Final Report and Termination Statement:

- A Final Report and Termination Statement is submitted with the campaign's final Campaign Contribution Disclosure Report.
- The Statement must identify the termination date as well as the person responsible for maintaining campaign records as required by the Act.
- To qualify to file a Final Report and Termination Statement, the filer must have a zero net balance, zero debt, and not be seeking or holding the office.
- Candidates for any state or state-wide office must file electronically with the Commission and candidates for county and municipal offices file with their local filing officer.

Personal Financial Disclosure Statement:

- A Personal Financial Disclosure Statement is filed by a candidate or public official in which the filer discloses information about financial activity for the preceding calendar year.
- A statement must be filed each year, even if information does not change.
- If running for a state-wide position additional information is required to be reported.
- No grace period and a $125.00 late fee is assessed when a statement is filed after the due date.
- Candidates for any state or state-wide office must file electronically with the Commission and candidates for county and municipal offices file with their local filing officer.
- Those holding the office of Georgia Soil and Water Conservation Commission District Supervisor need only file the Personal Financial Disclosure Statement per the filing schedule, and they file directly with the State.

Two Day Business Report:

- A Two Day Business Report is a report used to report individual contributions (including loans) of $1,000.00 or more, received between the date of the last Campaign Contribution Disclosure Report (CCDR) due prior to the date the election for which the candidate has qualified and the date of such election.
- These contributions must be reported within two business days of receipt.
- This contribution must also be reported on the next scheduled CCDR.
- Candidates for any state or state-wide office must file electronically with the Commission and candidates for county and municipal offices filed with their local filing officer.
- No grace period and a $125.00 late fee is assessed when a statement is filed after the due date.

Electronic Filing Access Code Application:

- Used for identification purposes for local and state candidates.
- Filed with the Georgia Government Transparency and Campaign Finance Commission.

Filing Schedule:

- The State's Filing Schedule, which provides guidance on when documents must be filed, can be located at the following website:

<http://ethics.ga.gov/file-schedule/>
