

PRESS RELEASE

ONE OPEN POSITION ON THE FAYETTE COUNTY PLANNING COMMISSION

The Fayette County Planning Commission is a volunteer body comprised of five members who are appointed to three-year terms. The Planning Commission hears and makes recommendations concerning amendments to the zoning ordinance, including the rezoning of property and the comprehensive plan. The Planning Commission also approves preliminary plats, final plats, and minor subdivision plats, and hears variances on subdivision regulations, floodplain regulations, and watershed protection regulations.

Each member of the Fayette County Planning Commission must be a resident of Fayette County. No member of the Planning Commission may hold any other public office, except that one (1) member may also be a member of the Fayette County Zoning Board of Appeals.

The Planning Commission is scheduled to meet twice monthly, at 7:00 p.m., at the Fayette County Administrative Complex located at 140 Stonewall Avenue West, Fayetteville, Georgia 30214.

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners would like to notify interested Fayette County citizens that one position on the Fayette County Planning Commission is available for appointment with a term beginning January 1, 2015 and expiring December 31, 2017.

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners will be accepting applications with resumes for these three positions. Applications can be obtained by contacting Floyd Jones at (770) 305-5102 or at fjones@fayettecountyga.gov. All applications must be returned to Floyd Jones at 140 Stonewall Avenue West, Suite 100, Fayetteville, Georgia by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, January 9 28, 2015.
