Computer Education and Language Lab

Free Instruction at the Fayette County Public Library

Call for reservations: 770-461-8841

Learning Lab Hours:

Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Saturday
6:00-7:55	3:00-4:55	10:00-11:55 3:00—4:55	10:00-11:55

Computer Courses
(Self-paced online tutorials with lab teacher present)
Basic Computer, Basic Internet, Typing, Windows, Outlook, Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Access

Free Language Classes
(Self-paced lessons featuring Rosetta Stone software)
Spanish, ESL (English as a Second Language), French, German, Italian, Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, and Latin

Early Education
Over 3,500 interactive books, educational games, puzzles, and other learning activities in reading, math, science, social studies, art, and music for ages 2—7.

Academic & Career-Related Courses
(Self-paced online tutorials with lab teacher present)
Skill-building courses for reading, writing, math, and science. Test prep for high school equivalency and college admissions exams. Courses on job searching and preparing for occupational licensing exams.

For a complete list of courses, please look on the back of this flyer

Session times available on Tuesdays:
10:00 - 10:30
10:30 - 11:00
11:00 - 11:30
11:30 - 12:00

Personalized Computer Assistance
30 minute session of one-on-one assistance with a technology instructor

Do you have a computer or gadget question? Schedule a session on Tuesday mornings to sit down with a library staff member and get the answers to your questions. We're able to help with all sorts of inquiries, from basic computer questions to learning to use a new smart phone or tablet to setting up a Facebook or Twitter account.

Sessions must be reserved at least 24 hours in advance. Call 770.461.8841 to schedule a session.