Great Websites

Stop You're Killing Me (www.stopyourekillingme.com)

This website features detailed information about the mystery genre and a comprehensive list of over 4,300 authors, with chronological lists of their books, both series and non-series.

Novelist (<http://www.galileo.usg.edu>)

Available on GALILEO, Novelist provides great what-do-I-read-next recommendations.

Awards

Agatha Awards (www.malicedomestic.org)

The Agatha Awards honor the traditional mystery—books best typified by the works of Agatha Christie—and are awarded annually by Malice Domestic, Ltd.

Anthony Awards (www.bouchercon.com)

The Anthony Awards are given at each annual Bouchercon World Mystery Convention with the winners selected by attendees. The award is named for the late Anthony Boucher, well-known writer and critic from the New York Times, who helped found the Mystery Writers of America.

Edgar Awards (www.theedgars.com)

Mystery Writers of America give these awards to honor the best in mystery fiction and nonfiction produced the previous year. The awards began in 1946 and are named in honor of Edgar Allan Poe.
