Commissioner Horgan made a motion and Commissioner Frady seconded the motion to authorize the Chairman to execute a Contract for fuel storage capacity improvements at the Fayette County Public Works facility. The motion carried 5-0. A copy of the Contract, identified as "Attachment No. 5", follows these minutes and is made an official part hereof.

STAFF REPORTS:

MODIFIED WATERING RESTRICTIONS: Water System Director Tony Parrott remarked that he would be bringing the issue of modified watering restrictions to the Board for discussion at the March 13, 2008 Board meeting.

BOARD REPORTS:

None

EXECUTIVE SESSION:

None.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

Rick Williams: Rick Williams commented on the issue of district voting and spoke in favor of it. He said there were only three Georgia Counties out of 159 who did not have district voting.

Mrs. Stuart Barnes: Mrs. Stuart Barnes remarked on district voting and said she was pleased with the current system and was opposed to district voting.

Kevin Madden: Kevin Madden commented on district voting and felt people should have the right to vote for the people who represented them.

Representative Virgil Fludd: Representative Virgil Fludd commented on the issue of district voting and the House Bill that he had presented. He felt now was the time for district voting and this issue was about justice and fairness.

William Brian: William Brian commented on district voting and said he was opposed to it.

Sam Chapman: Sam Chapman remarked on district voting and felt at-large voting spoke for all citizens and held the Commission to a higher standard.

Wendy Felton: Wendy Felton commented on the issue of district voting. She felt citizens were disenfranchised and their voices not heard. She remarked that the City of Fayetteville and the City of Peachtree City also had their municipal governments to address their citizens' concerns. She said the current voting districts were too large and district voting needed to be addressed and suggested having more than five Commissioners for Fayette County.

Connie Biemiller: Connie Biemiller remarked on the issue of district voting. She said this was not a racial issue and not a party issue. She said she disagreed with the Legislation as put forth by Representative Virgil Fludd calling for five separate voting districts. She said she was in favor of the idea for three districts and keeping two districts at-large.

Donald Sims: Donald Sims commented on district voting and felt every citizen should elect a commissioner who would be elected by them, represent them and be accountable to them.

Peter Leun: Peter Leun commented on the issue of district voting as well as the Democratic Party in Fayette County.

Alice Jones: Ms. Jones remarked on the issue of district voting and fairness to every citizen in the community. She felt there should be a Commissioner representing each specific district of the County and that specific Commissioner would be a voice for that section of the County.

Juan Matote: Juan Matote commented on district voting and said he was in favor of district voting. He remarked that in a web search of the top ten cities in the United States, seven out of ten cities had district voting. He said he had lived in Los Angeles County, California and district voting had worked well there. He asked the Board members to open their minds to the idea of district voting and how well it had worked in other areas.

Mike Hofrichter: Mike Hofrichter commented on district voting. He remarked that 60% of Representative Fludd's district lived outside of Fayette County. He proposed that Representative Fludd draft a Bill that would allow for one Senator per County and two Representatives per County State-wide.

Marilyn Watts: Marilyn Watts remarked that she was opposed to district voting. She said she wanted all five Commissioners representing her and she wanted to keep the current system in place. She said Fayette County's system had worked well over the years and this was one of the reasons Fayette County was one of the top Georgia Counties to live.

Henry Adams: Henry Adams commented in favor of district voting.

Emory McHugh: Emory McHugh remarked that in order to put a strategic plan together a County had to have a focus. He said district voting would not work with five separate County Commissioners. He said he had worked under this form of government in other areas and it just did not work well.

Abra Bazydlo: Abra Bazydlo commented in favor of district voting.

Judith Moore: Judith Moore commented in favor of district voting and urged the Board of Commissioners to turn things around and make them right.

Johnny Jones: Johnny Jones commented on district voting and appealed to the Board to consider this issue.

Varner Holmes: Varner Holmes felt the discussion tonight sounded like North Fayette County versus South Fayette County. She said the current system had worked well for Fayette County and she remarked that she was opposed to district voting.

Tom Waller: Tom Waller said he had some additional comments on the Sandy Creek Road issue. He said Phase I involved two intersections on Sandy Creek Road and the fiscal impact as well as the traffic concerns at these intersections. He urged the Board to put safety in front of the County costs.

ADJOURNMENT:

Commissioner Frady made a motion and Commissioner Horgan seconded the motion to adjourn the meeting at 9:00 p.m. The motion carried 5-0.

Karen Morley, Chief Deputy Clerk

Jack R. Smith, Chairman

The foregoing minutes were duly approved at an official meeting of the Board of Commissioners of Fayette County, Georgia, held on the 13th day of March, 2008.
