All in favor

Old Business:

None

New Business:

Basketball overview – Made it through scaled down season in 2020 with no incidents, registration is open for the upcoming season

Rowing overview – registration down, had 30 kids last fall, winter/spring season about 50 kids. Interest is picking up in the adult program. Working on building a boat house.

Forms for associations:

Co-sponsor form – needs to be filled out for each event

Protecting Children (mandatory reporting) – all coaches, volunteers, team moms need to do

Background check form

Code of Conduct

Concussion sheet

Need to have a bullying policy. NAYS has a free course. Need a course that offers a certificate. Is Harassment Policy same?

Possibly look into sensitivity training

Public Comment – none

Staff Reports:

Park reservoir fees – proposal being submitted to Water Committee regarding non-resident fees changed and a parks proposal to raise fees. No more daily passes just an annual pass.

Community Meeting – group looking into an outdoor summer league (basketball) to be held at Kenwood Park. League would be similar to Upward programs.

Yard sale – Saturday 6/12

Canceled traditional day camp due to salaries of the workers. Once applicants were interviewed and approved, they had accepted other jobs.

BOC approved transfer of funds to put toward multi-use facility

Community Meeting had around 50 people. Main complaints were nuisance complaints (noise, trash). Fencing by adjacent parks and owners' properties.

Board Reports: none

Adjournment: 7:30

Motion – Lisa Mahaffey

Second – Bryan Thompson
