OLD BUSINESS:

Reminder for the Committee that the annual Balloons over Fayette event is coming soon.

June 7 & 8

Selection Committee

Guyton volunteered to serve on the committee.

Discussion of Carolyn Moore's mime class as part of our lecture series-Dan Guyton

Per Guyton's discussion with Moore. There will be two groups. One for minor and one for adults. Each small group will perform for the other.

Moore is aware of the fee. Thompson suggested to Guyton to see if Moore was interested in promoting herself for future classes. Cap suggested finding a place first to determine proper scheduling. Thompson suggested the library but with the understanding that its open to the general public.

Motion-Lafoy

Guyton-So moved
Cap-Second
Unanimous approval

Birdhouses:There has been some interest from another girl scout troop in helping us with our project going forward-Dan Guyton

Lisa Ficke is interested in both of her Girl Scout Troops participating. LaFoy will reach out to Ficke to provide her with more info. Guyton will send a three-person introduction via email that includes LaFoy and Moore. Thompson added that she has a retired source that lives off Hwy 92 North that can offer/sell us birdhouses.

No action taken.

New Business

Moving forward with the selection process for our professional chalk artists for Friday Night Live in June.

The committee voted on the top four...

Zach

Fawn

Jesse

Lotta

Maddy and Brittany were artists that submitted their work. They will stand as alternatives in the event that an artist from the chosen top four is unable to make it.

The theme is "Create with Us"

Cap asked Guyton to write an informal contract. Guyton will send to Godbee for legal to approve.

Other Business

Unanimous vote for Title: "The Director Wants What" Romeo and Juliet. Guyton will follow up for Q & A with Elisabeth Cooper. Cooper is offering this workshop.
