

Art of the Story

All ages welcome but geared to ages 4 and older

Tuesdays 2:30-5:30

This is a drop-in program. Come any time between 2:30 – 5:15 to participate.

2:30 p.m.	Story
2:45-4:00	Art Time
4:00 p.m.	Story
4:15-5:30 p.m.	Art Time

We will start by reading a book together and sharing some conversation. After the story we will have independent time to dive into our weekly art projects.

This summer we will create art inspired by books by Laurel Snyder and Nikki Grimes. Laurel Snyder will be at the library on June 27 to spend the day with us and share presentations about her work. We will have a chance to ask Nikki Grimes questions during a Skype visit on July 25.

We will create dragons, robots, super heroes, kittens as inspired by Snyder's book The King of Too Many Things and will make a treasure box based on Grimes' book Poems in the Attic. We will also have the chance to create our own comic books and "zines". In addition to our weekly project there will be opportunities to create rockets, bead projects and even learn about the art of gardening with our friends from the extension service.

We cannot accommodate day cares/camps at our public programs.
Please see our camp/day care flyer for details.
